

Violin, Viola

Friday, Saturday
with Fiona Mackay

ABOUT THE LESSONS:

Fiona Mackay has been teaching music since 1995 & enjoys teaching people from all walks of life, always tailoring lessons to the individual students' needs. Students may choose to play for leisure, or study for AMEB / VCE exams. Throughout their tuition, all students are taught to read music and to 'play by ear'

Group Class

Playing with others makes music fun and gives a reason to practice. Students will attend a group class once or twice a term, instead of their weekly private lesson. They will meet other students, and develop their musical knowledge, aural skills and ability to play in an ensemble. They may also attend the monthly Fiddle Tunes Workshop.

ABOUT THE TEACHER:

Fiona began playing the violin at the age of 7 and has since studied viola, voice and composition, completing a bachelor of music at Monash University in 2001. She currently enjoys running Stringybach Music teaching, performing & writing music in a wide variety of styles and is always on the lookout for new ways to broaden her musical creativity. Over the years Fiona has had extensive experience performing solo, chamber & orchestral music as well as traditional / modern folk & jazz. Current groups include Three Corner Jack Bushband, Stringybach String Quartet, Light 'N' Tangy, Folkus & Grooveyard.
