

INVITATION TO DANCE, DRUM, SING AND BLOW YOUR OWN HORN.

DRMC is hosting a music festival and dance party on September 17th at Burrinja. Anyone can come along and sing or perform Abba songs with Tecoma Sing Australia. If country music is more your style bring your cowboy hat and kick up your heels with Karen Woolfall and local country musicians.

A creative dance workshop will explore your interest in dance moves. Wheelchair users welcome to join dance workshops. The New Horizons Concert Band will welcome registrations to join the workshops on woodwind, brass and percussion and learn about the new beginner band for older people to be launched soon by DRMC.

Full circle drumming led by a Rod McLeod will drum up a storm on Djembes and African harps. BYO drum or drums will be supplied.

All this will culminate in a party performance on stage in Burrinja Theatre. You can be in the party audience or party on stage as a performer. All ages, All abilities welcome to the concert festival party at 2pm. Workshop registrations invited now. More information is at drmc.org.au.
